

• Word Definition 2 Level 8

Directions: Choose the answer choice that best defines the word in capital letters.

1) DUB

- A. to delay intentionally
- B. to name unofficially
- C. to contrast starkly
- D. to collide forcefully

2) ADJACENT

- A. slowing something down
- B. above something
- C. moving away from something
- D. next to something

3) REVERE

- A. to align
- B. to honor
- C. to shine
- D. to suspect

4) EMBARK

- A. to begin
- B. to applaud
- C. to research
- D. to enclose

5) VICE

- A. pressure
- B. greed
- C. immorality
- D. secrets

6) SAGA

- A. a dishonest man
- B. a successful book
- C. a long tale
- D. a well-kept secret

7) IMPULSIVE

- A. missing due to illness
- B. following a command
- C. making many demands
- D. acting without thinking

8) TRIVIAL

- A. powerful
- B. unimportant
- C. sarcastic
- D. burning

9) ERA

- A. a short-lived event or thing
- B. an attempt to completely destroy something
- C. a thing that makes loud sounds
- D. a long and distinct period of time

10) MINIMIZE

- A. to reduce something to the smallest possible size
- B. to cut or grind something into small pieces
- C. to satisfy a desire or thirst for something
- D. to make sure a place remains completely unoccupied

Answers and Explanations

1) B

dub (verb): to give an unofficial name or nickname to someone or something: Mononucleosis has been dubbed "the kissing disease," but this name is not accurate: mono can be caught even without kissing an infected person.

2) D

adjacent (adjective): next to something: Your next-door neighbor lives in the house that is adjacent to yours.

3) B

revere (verb): to honor: The Founding Fathers of the United States are revered with special holidays and monuments, and other countries similarly honor their former leaders.

4) A

embark (verb): to begin: When my youngest daughter entered kindergarten, I decided to stop being a stay-at-home mom and embarked on a new career path.

5) C

vice (noun): immorality: My grandfather thinks that Las Vegas is a city of vice, since so much of its economy depends on gambling and immodesty, which he thinks are sins.

6) C

saga (noun): a long tale: Sturluson wrote many famous Viking sagas, which are long tales about the Viking conquerors and their mythical gods.

7) D

impulsive (adjective): acting without thinking: Shyla is an impulsive girl who often makes quick decisions she later regrets.

8) B

trivial (verb): unimportant: Mother and Father never have big fights, but they do have lots of little arguments about trivial things like TV shows and coffee brands.

9) D

era (noun): a long and distinct period of history with particular features or characteristics: The Era of Good Feelings was so called because it describes the decades in which the United States had a new sense of national purpose and a lack of hostility in politics.

10) A

minimize (verb): to reduce something to the smallest possible size, amount, or degree: Surgeons make sure everything they touch is completely clean of bacteria and other harmful substances in order to minimize the risk of infection for the patient.